Release Date: Immediate, October 24, 2006

Designers, Pat Case and Donna Crabtree from Great Impressions, a local full-service interior design firm, have just returned from the bi-annual International Home Furnishings Market in High Point, NC. It is the largest furniture market in the world. They attended educational seminars including one on current design trends showing new products, colors and styles, and one on decorating small spaces hosted by HGTV's Sally Smith. Products are made in the USA and around the world. Styles varied showing retro, contemporary, modern, and traditional. The color forecast for 2007 includes popular warm tones, reds, and golds, as well as, a color combination of aqua and brown. The current trend leans towards large-scale lamps, artwork, and mirrors which can be equally appropriate for large or smaller scale rooms. Purchases were made for some immediate delivery, and other lines will arrive in early spring. As always, the designers were also shopping for individual clients.

Great Impressions prides itself on working with a client's current décor to integrate new styles, colors, etc. to give rooms an updated look. No project is too small. Three interior designers on staff to help you with your project. Call 382-0398 for an appointment, or stop in the store at 288 East Church Street, Marion to see the newest trends.
