

Countryopolitan

We are not talking about Countryopolitan music. We are talking about the latest in home design and décor. Countryopolitan is a mixture of many styles from traditional and formal to contemporary and modern.

Here at Great Impressions, we are very excited about this new look. In fact, Owner and Interior Designer, Pat Case, loves it. For Pat Countryopolitan “says it all. It can be refined, casual, and fun. It let’s me have all thing I want to have.” She even told me on her next day off she just might put away all her summer accessories and go Countryopolitan this fall.

Like what you are hearing, but just can’t picture it? Come into the store to see examples of what we like about Countryopolitan. Our favorite display is shown below. We took this cream distressed table and grouped it with a contemporary aqua table lamp and aqua and brown bowl. We also added this beautiful distressed chest.

So, go ahead and place your favorite crystal candle sticks on that rustic table you just loved, but didn’t know what to do with.

Check out our “Upcoming Events” link to learn more about our Countryopolitan Christmas class this December.

